ANZ Institutional: Best Bank in Asia for relationships eight years in a row

ANZ's Institutional business has been awarded Best Bank – Corporate Banking in Asia. The award recognises relationship quality and was revealed in the Crisil Coalition Greenwich Voice of Client – 2024 Asian Corporate Banking Study results. Previously, this award was known as the 'Greenwich Quality Leader in Asian Large Corporate Banking'.

ANZ was also named the Best Bank for relationship quality in Singapore, China and Indonesia, reflecting its long history supporting the trade and capital flows of Institutional customers around the region.

ANZ Managing Director, International, Simon Ireland said: "These results underscore our exceptional support, adaptability, and consistent focus on our target customers amid uncertain market conditions and geopolitical shifts.

Our extensive network across Asia remains a competitive advantage, connecting our customers to opportunities in Asia, and in our home markets of Australia and New Zealand. We'll continue to invest in our people and platforms to strengthen our capabilities in this highly competitive market," Mr Ireland said.

ANZ received the following Crisil Coalition Greenwich Awards:

1. Best Bank – Corporate Banking in Asia (8th year)
2. Best Bank – Corporate Banking in Asia, China (8th year)
3. Best Bank – Corporate Banking in Asia, Indonesia
4. Best Bank – Corporate Banking in Asia, Singapore (3rd year)
5. Best Bank – Coverage for Corporates in Asia¹
6. Best Bank – Ease of Doing Business for Corporates in Asia
7. Best Bank – Foreign Exchange Trading for Corporates in Asia (from the Asian Corporate Foreign Exchange Study)

The Crisil Coalition Greenwich Voice of Client – 2024 Asian Corporate Banking Study asks executives to rate the relationship strength of a bank using a range of qualities.

The annual independent study interviewed 1,012 corporates with annual revenues of ~US$500 million or more across Asia. For more information visit the Crisil Coalition Greenwich report here.

¹ Coverage for Corporates in Asia refers to the overall front-line perceptions and excellence in frequency of contact, timely follow-up, knowledge of international banking needs, knowledge of transaction banking needs, effectively coordination of product specialists.
