Bill payments made simple with ANZ goMoney™

ANZ today announced the latest version of ANZ goMoney is now available for downloading via Apple's App Store which has been updated with BPAY® functionality and enhanced features for people who are blind or have low vision.

ANZ Managing Director, Product, Strategy & Marketing, Louis Hawke, said: "In less than a year ANZ goMoney accounts for more than a quarter of our online and mobile log-ins and is still continuing to grow rapidly. Our customers have transferred more than $4bn using ANZ goMoney highlighting both its popularity and the general trend toward mobile banking," said Mr Hawke.

Having already won multiple international and national awards the new features on ANZ goMoney include:

- Pay bills using BPAY
- Better integration with ANZ internet banking system – with the ability to save and retrieve lists of billers and payees
- View investment performance, transaction history and make deposits into your ANZ Online Investment Account
- Search functionality to easily find transactions history of up to 120 days The ability to save, email and print transaction receipts

"We listened to our customers who told us they wanted us to include BPAY. We've also better integrated this latest release with ANZ internet banking, meaning customers can add, save and retrieve lists of billers and payees."

"The latest version of ANZ goMoney also includes improved voice over (VO) functionality to assist people who are blind or have low vision which is part of our broader plan to ensure all our products and services are accessible to everyone," said Mr Hawke.

ANZ goMoney remains the only iPhone mobile banking app to allow users to securely transfer money between friends and businesses using mobile phone details. Available for the iPhone, ANZ goMoney is free and can be downloaded via iTunes or the App Store.
