ANZ appointed sole banking provider for SA Government

ANZ today announced it has been appointed as the sole provider of core-banking services for the South Australian Government.

Under the arrangement, ANZ will provide transaction banking services and purchase cards to all SA Government agencies over a five-year term with the option to extend for another five-year period. ANZ Worldline Payment Solutions – the joint venture between ANZ and Europe’s leading payments provider Worldline - will provide merchant services.

ANZ Group Executive Institutional, Mark Whelan, said: “We’re very pleased to be partnering with the South Australian Government to provide reliable and innovative banking services to the people and businesses of SA.”

ANZ Managing Director Transaction Banking, Lisa Vasic, said: “We’re looking forward to delivering our digital and technology capabilities to support the government’s transformation agenda.”

ANZ Worldline Payment Solutions Chief Executive Officer, Petr Ryska said: “We’re proud to be collaborating with our joint venture partner ANZ to combine the best of merchant services technology with banking services for the South Australian Government.”
